

Company Secretarial

Whilst focusing on the needs of their organisations, trustees, directors and business owners may struggle to set aside the time to consider their statutory duties and the legal obligations imposed upon their companies. We can help you avoid pitfalls by providing a complete compliance package tailored to your exact requirements.

Our company secretarial services

Our dedicated Company Secretarial team provides a full range of services designed to ensure compliance with statutory obligations. We also provide supporting documents for a wide range of ad-hoc corporate transactions. The team also works closely with our specialists in other areas such as audit and tax, which helps to ensure that you always receive an integrated service.

Our services include the following:

- Incorporation of new companies and LLPs
- Registration of UK establishments of overseas companies
- Provision of a registered office facility
- Completion and filing of the Confirmation Statement
- Maintenance of your statutory books and registers
- Share issues, transfers, and capital restructuring
- Dividend documentation
- Company Strike Offs and administrative restorations
- Drafting amendments to articles of association
- Board support
- AGM procedures
- Advice on directors' duties and responsibilities
- Review of corporate governance and best practice procedures
- Health review of your statutory records
